BETTER TOGETHER, LOVE AND KINDNESS IN JUDAISM

Rabbi Tzvi Muller

In-Person | Max M. Fisher Federation Building

MONDAYS, NOON – 1 PM

Nov. 4, 11, 18; Dec. 2, 9, 16

The world is desperately in need of more kindness. As Jews, we are often the targets of the most virulent hatred and cruelty. However, we must prioritize bringing love and goodness into a world that is seriously lacking compassion. Connect back to the source of Judaism's values of love and kindness in our effort to bring about a universal healing.

We will explore the primary Jewish texts regarding the application of this mitzvah in real life.

- What are the attitudes, emotions and behaviors that love requires?
- How do we develop those attitudes, emotions and behavior tendencies?
- Can, and should, we love others equally to ourselves?
- Should we love people who do bad things?
- What is self-love and is it included in this mitzvah?
- Why is this mitzvah considered the greatest principle of Judaism?

Tuition: $95

READING BETWEEN THE LINES – FALL

THE JEWISH COLLECTORS OF ART

Wendy Evans

ZOOM

WEDNESDAYS, 10 – 11:30 AM

Jan. 22, 29; Feb. 5

Jewish collectors have contributed to and enriched art museums; a few have even created their own museums. This series will look at examples of the art collected by well-known families such as the Rothschilds and the Steins, and lesser-known individuals such as Ludwig and Rosy Fischer. The art will vary from Judaica to Old Master paintings, impressionists, expressionists and modern art. Join Wendy Evans for this fascinating journey through some of the best collections of art.

Tuition: $70

JEWISH IDENTITY: WHO IS A JEW?

Ruth Bergman

In-Person | Max M. Fisher Federation Building

WEDNESDAYS, 10 – 11:15 AM

Sept. 11, 18, 25

Are Jewish people an ethnicity, religion or culture? The answer is yes! The evolution of Jewish identity from the Bible to today leaves us questioning not “who is a Jew?” but “what is a Jew?” Since biblical times Jewish identity - what it means to be Jewish in connection to G-d, other Jews and other peoples - has changed and changed again. Together, we will study various texts that define Jewishness as an ethnicity, religion, culture...and even a political identity!

Tuition: $60

JEWS IN THE THEATER

Rabbi Aaron Bergman

ZOOM

WEDNESDAYS, NOON – 1:30 PM

Oct. 30; Nov. 6, 13, 20

You may be familiar with the Jewish character Shylock from Shakespeare's The Merchant of Venice, or you may know that Jewish people have been involved in Broadway productions from its inception. But did you know that Jews have been involved in the theater, either as creators or characters, since the 3rd Century BCE? Join Rabbi Aaron Bergman as we look at Jewish actors, playwrights and acting coaches as well as analyzing how Jews have been portrayed in the theater by non-Jewish and Jewish writers and actors.

Tuition: $90

Jan. 23, 30; Feb. 6, 13; Mar. 6, 13, 20, 27; Apr. 3, 24; May 1, 8

Through the ages, Psalms have played a tremendous role in the lives of the Jewish people. It is part of our liturgy, and many have repeatedly turned to Psalms for encouragement and comfort in moments of crisis or despair. Delve into and unpack numerous Psalms and see how they can help us articulate what is occurring in our lives and how they help connect us to G-d and the centuries of Jews who came before us.

Tuition: $185

HAVE YOU GOT CHUTZPAH?

Rabbi Joseph Krakoff

In-Person | Max M. Fisher Federation Building

THURSDAYS, 10 – 11:30 AM

Sept. 12, 19, 26 (Last class will be held on ZOOM)

Chutzpah is a Yiddish word meaning imprudence or nerve. It also can involve an expression of audacity, effrontery, gall and temerity. It is a flagrant boldness that is often not received with positivity. If you have chutzpah, you may say what you think and not be concerned with hurting someone’s feelings or getting in trouble. But chutzpah also may be a vital force in empowering people to do what is right even amid challenges, difficulties and obstacles. Having chutzpah can allow us to persevere and not be held back from realizing our greatest moments. Join Rabbi Joseph Krakoff in this soulful examination of the many faces of chutzpah.

Tuition: $70

COFFEE WITH THE RABBIS: MUSSAR MASTERS - ETHICAL LIVING

Rabbi Joshua Bennett and Rabbi Joseph Krakoff

ZOOM

THURSDAYS, 10 – 11:30 AM

Monthly: Nov. 7; Dec. 5; Jan. 9; Feb. 6; Mar. 6; Apr. 3; May 8; June 5

Mussar is a Jewish spiritual practice that offers instruction and compelling strategies for living a meaningful and ethical Jewish life. Mussar seeks to aid in self-examination and character development by presenting thoughtful strategies for becoming our best and truest selves while achieving peace of mind.

Join Rabbi Joshua Bennett and Rabbi Joseph Krakoff as they explore Mussar topics that include humility, patience, honesty, loving kindness, tolerance and purity. Come for Coffee With The Rabbis and leave being the best person you can be!

Tuition: $195

THE SYNAGOGUE: ITS HISTORY, CUSTOMS AND GROWTH

Dr. Michael Pytlik

ZOOM

THURSDAYS, NOON – 1:30 PM

Oct. 31; Nov. 7, 14, 21; Dec. 5, 12, 19; Jan. 9

The concept of the synagogue as a place of worship started long before the destruction of the Holy Temple in Jerusalem by the Romans in 70 CE. The recent uncovering of the remains of ancient synagogues has allowed us to trace the synagogue's development, both in form and function. Join Dr. Michael Pytlik as he explores the evolution of the synagogue in Israel, the Near East and into Europe, and discover the art, archaeology, liturgy and the religious use of this important institution.

Tuition: $190

BIBLICAL DREAMERS AND THE VISIONARIES THEY INSPIRED

Ariella Nadel

ZOOM

THURSDAYS, NOON – 1:15 PM

Oct. 31; Nov. 7, 14, 21; Dec. 5, 12, 19; Jan. 9

From Joseph to Betzalel, Miriam to Judith, our national history has propelled forward by the visions of prophetic dreamers. Each week we will study the story and text of a different biblical dreamer and then travel through our history to find the leaders and movements they subsequently inspired.

Tuition: $155

THE RESISTANCE OF WOMEN DURING THE HOLOCAUST

Dr. Katie Chaka Parks

In-Person | Holocaust Memorial Center - Zekelman Family Campus

THURSDAYS, 1 – 2:15 PM

Nov. 7, 14, 21

The Holocaust was not inevitable. Rather, it was the result of choices made over time by individuals and groups of people to be perpetrators, collaborators and bystanders. However, many people resisted the Nazi regime including vast numbers of women. While women's stories of resistance are lesser known, they are vital to our understanding of how both Jews and non-Jews resisted dehumanization and hate during the Holocaust.

Tuition: $60

Judaic Studies Classes

FIDDLER ON THE ROOF: FROM THE PALE OF SETTLEMENT TO THE BROADWAY STAGE

Dr. Avi Blitz

ZOOM

THURSDAYS, 7:30 – 8:45 PM

Nov 7, 14, 21; Dec. 5

Explore the world of author Sholem Aleichem, the man whose stories inspired the Broadway musical, Fiddler on the Roof. Begin by reading The Railroad Stories and consider what kind of world Sholem Aleichem inhabited. Read the tales of Tevye the Dairyman and consider how each of Tevye's daughters represents a different future for the Jewish people. Look at the rise of Yiddish theater in New York and reflect on the conditions that made the production of Fiddler on the Roof possible. Finally, we will watch Tevya, a 1939 Yiddish film adaptation of the stories, which we will compare with the 1971 film of the Broadway show. Dr. Avi Blitz will be our guide as we compare how the Broadway musical changed the original stories to align with Jewish-American realities and explore the ways in which the play speaks to a universal immigrant experience in the United States.

Tuition: $80

PARSHA HASHAVUAH (WEEKLY TORAH PORTION)

Community Rabbis, Cantors and Educators

ZOOM

FRIDAYS, 10 – 11 AM

Series 1: Sept. 13, 20, 27; Nov. 1, 8, 15, 22; Dec. 6, 13, 20

Series 2: Jan 10, 17, 24, 31; Feb. 7, 14, 21, 28; Mar. 7, 14

Series 3: Mar. 21, 28; Apr. 4, 25; May 2, 9, 16, 23, 30; June 6

Each week a different rabbi, cantor or educator will present the weekly Torah portion from their perspective. You never know who will be teaching each week, but it is always enlightening and engaging! Sign up for one ten-week series or the entire year. Students need to have a Tanakh (Bible).

Tuition: $150 per 10-week series

Discount: Sign up for all three series - $430

READING THE BOOK OF GENESIS AGAIN FOR THE FIRST TIME

Rabbi Joseph Klein

ZOOM

FRIDAYS, 11:30 AM – 1 PM

Nov. 1, 8, 15, 22; Dec. 6, 13, 20; Jan. 3

The Book of Genesis has for too long been wrongly transmitted as Sunday School stories. And, because we tell these stories to children, we assume that they were meant for children. But the truth is that these are sophisticated and extremely well-written narratives. The course will introduce the Documentary Hypothesis, recognizing that the final version was meant to be read as a unified text.

Tuition: $190

THE BOOK OF EXODUS: TEXT AND TEXTURE

Rabbi Joseph Klein

ZOOM

FRIDAYS, 11:30 AM – 1 PM

Jan. 17, 24, 31; Feb. 7, 14, 21, 28; Mar. 7

This course will be a close and careful reading of the better-known Exodus narratives and their rabbinic and modern commentaries. The class will incorporate a discussion of the Documentary Hypothesis as a means of better understanding the purpose and intention of this foundation text of Torah, as well as presentation of what archaeology and Egyptology can teach about its historicity.

Tuition: $190

READING THE PROPHETS

Rabbi Joseph Klein

ZOOM

FRIDAYS, 11:30 AM – 1 PM

May 2, 9, 16, 23, 30; June 6

We know their names and many of their quotations. This course will examine the best known of the Biblical Prophets, their histories, the context of their messages and who in fact they really were. Rabbi Klein will place them within the historical reality of the Biblical narrative, suggest how their messages would have been received then and what they can mean for us today.
